From the DESK Of the DIRECTOR

Time is really flying by. It seems like a such a short time since I was writing this column for the last journal.

First of all, we want to thank Joy STRADER MEALEY for her assistance in preparing the last several journals. We really appreciate her hard work and efforts. Due to some problems she is experiencing at this time, she will not be able to assist us currently. Our thoughts and prayers are certainly with her and hopefully at some point in the future she will again be able to work with us.

Gathering is upon us. By the time you receive this Journal, we will probably be in the midst of it. We hope that you will also be here. This year's gathering promises to be an interesting, exciting time.

We are having lots of visitors here at the Library. We certainly hope to see you this spring or fall. If you are planning a trip to our area, please let us know and we may be able to assist you with places to stay or sights to see while you are here.

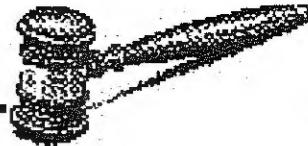

Currently, volunteer Ann Wilfong, is working on a history of schools in Lewis County. We are in need of pictures of any former or existing school buildings in Lewis County. If you have one, we would love to have a copy. You may send them either as a print or a disk or in an e-mail to us here at the Library.

As most of you know, we are now sending a monthly electronic (e-mail) newsletter to all of our members which is intended to keep you current with HCPD activities and things happening here at the library. In order to make sure you receive it, please be sure to keep us up to date with your current e-mail address. Also if you have a "spam-blocker" of some type it may be catching your newsletter as we get several returned, advising us that we cannot access that address. If you are not receiving the newsletter please be sure our address is in your address book! If this is not the problem, and you are not receiving the newsletter, please e-mail us at hcpd@hackerscreek.com and we will make sure to get you on the list.

Betty Ann

P.S. The Eatin', Singin' & History Festival that I told you about last issue was a huge success!

Prose from the PREZ

It's me again!

Although this edition of the Journal is late arriving, I hope it gets to you prior to Gathering and that some more of you will decide to join us.

After having almost no spring, West Virginia is enjoying a typical summer. This, of course, means hot and humid days with late afternoon and evening thunderstorms- at least at this particular time of year. Last night, I saw my first fireflies- or "lightning bugs", as we tend to call them. I am always fascinated by the fact that not every part of the country has them. Wonder why not?

Festivals abound in West Virginia during the summer and early fall, so that, in addition to researching and visiting us here at HCPD, going to courthouses, and stomping cemeteries, there are plenty of activities here for everyone.

I am in the process of creating a computer program to use in reading cemeteries. Apparently, there is no commercial program available. Most of our cemetery books were originally made prior to widespread computer use, so there is no database. This makes updating our books very difficult. My son and I will license this program to HCPD, so the organization may have lucked into a small source of income by providing this program to other groups.

Several other projects for publication are in the works, so everyone is busy. HCPD will also be at Jubilee at Jackson's Mill again this year. If you plan to be here in early August, I'm sure we could put you to work for a few hours at one of our Jubilee venues.

Until next time- or Gathering- or Jubilee- be safe and have some fun!

Mary

HACKER'S CREEK PIONEER DESCENDANTS

West Virginia History Hero Nomination for 2005

Randall and Betty Ann NICHOLSON have been active members of the Hacker's Creek Pioneer Descendants for more than a decade. As a team, they have worked together in many capacities to promote the preservation of history and the growth of the Hacker's Creek organization. Both serve as volunteer librarians, keeping the library open on Monday evenings and assisting patrons in their research. Both actively participate in programs and fund-raising activities of the group. Randall is a member of the Board of Directors and currently serves as editor of the "Hacker's Creek Journal". He is also chairman of building maintenance, performing maintenance tasks at the library and overseeing repairs. Betty Ann implemented the organization and cataloging of the organizations extensive photograph and manuscript collection. She now serves as Executive Director of the Hacker's Creek Pioneer Descendants, having accepted that position in January, 2004.

The Nicholsons received their award from West Virginia's First Lady Gayle MANCHIN on History Day, March 17, 2005, in the State Theater at The Cultural Center, Charleston.

HCPD's Archival Collections

by Joy L. STALNAKER

HCPD has several little used but important collections. Many of the items contained in them are one-of-a-kind or considered to be rare. Some of the collections are just now being made publicly available; others have been around awhile but are growing.

Manuscripts: This continually growing collection is comprised of thousands of documents: letters, booklets, scrapbooks, bits and pieces of all kinds of family information in formats not conducive to being placed on the shelves in the library. Donated by members and folks who know we collect this kind of information, the manuscript collection is stored mostly in archival boxes in a not-open-to-public area of the building. A computerized index is available for the manuscripts.

Photographs: Currently more than photographs have been accessioned for this collection with thousands more "waiting in the wings" for volunteers to complete the process of making them available for use. Photographs include landscapes, people, historical events, etc., not just in Lewis County but throughout Central West Virginia. This collection contains several sub-collections, particularly the Archie Ellis collection and the Carpenter collection. Archie Ellis was a professional photographer in Central West Virginia for several decades. His collection of glass plates, nitrates, and newer photographs was acquired by the Lewis County High School History Department and shared with HCPD. All of the unstable nitrate negatives have been copied by the State Archives and the nitrates discarded. We have copy contacts of all of these. The glass plates were printed and placed on CDs through the help of a grant from the Peters family. The remaining photographs were copied by State Archives and returned to us. We continue to work to identify individuals in these photographs. From time to time copies will appear in the Journal and some will be placed on our website for identification. The Carpenter Collection is focused on families in and around the Jackson's Mill area at the turn of the 20th Century. All were copied by the WV State Archives and are available as copy contacts. Many, but not all of the folks in these have been identified. Like the computerized index for manuscripts, this collection has also been indexed in an electronic database.

Hanging Files: A third collection which, for want of any other name, we are calling "Hanging Files," is just taking shape. This collection will be comprised of those single sheets or two or three or four or whatever submitted by you and you and you as information on specific families but which are not sufficient in number of pages to warrant a place in a catalogued book on the library shelves. These papers are being placed in file folders and will be found in a special filing cabinet in the library stack area. The files will be indexed in the regular computerized card catalog (not the paper card catalog).

Military Records: This collection contains copies of all or portions of pension and/or service records of soldiers from various wars beginning with the Revolutionary War. This collection is not indexed but can be found in marked file cabinets in the library stack area.

Lewis County Circuit Court Records: Copies of random files found in the Lewis County Circuit Court have been copied by Nancy JACKSON and are available in a marked filing cabin in the library stack area. The collection is not indexed but is files in alphabetical order. The physical support staff for these collections are volunteers Audrey BRENNEMAN, Ann WILFONG, and Joy STALNAKER. Much of the fiscal support comes from grants from the W.N. & J. W. PETERS Charitable Fund. Two $1000 grants in '03 and '04 have been used to develop glass plates, computerize the negatives and purchase shelving and archival supplies. A similar grant is forthcoming for our continuing project. And, the neatest thing about these grants... our "grunt work" is the match - no cash match required. We are grateful to the Peters Charitable Fund for their support.

THE PLUNDERED BIBLE: A CIVIL WAR STORY

As told by Mollie Steinbeck to her grandson, Frederick Robert Hawk, Weston, WV
May 27, 1938

Mary Elizabeth "Mollie" STEINBECK 90 years of age last Nov. 19th (1939) & one of Lewis County's (WV) oldest residents, who resides with her youngest son Walter D. STEINBECK, 609 Pratt Ave, Weston, W.VA. tells an interesting story of how a Bible traveled back and forth across the Blue and Gray lines during the war between the states.

With the first ruffle of the drums the two oldest brothers, George and John BALLENTEINE joined the ranks of the Union Army at Marietta, OH.(or Parkersburg, WV) (6th Reg. Co.G called the Bloody 6th. Chief Duty to guard Bridges & Railroads.) The family lived in Lowell, up the Ohio River and soon the younger brother, Ed 16 was persuaded to join the ranks in the same company. Although young looking at 16 he managed to gain admittance into the army through the verification of his brothers by giving his age as 18.

It was soon after this that the father William Henry BALLENTEINE made an appeal to the Captain for Ed's release on the score that he should be disqualified because of his true age. But Ed was becoming popular in his company already, probably due to his diminutive size and youth. He became nicknamed "Pony" and the Captain on hearing the Father's request gave his denial, "Certainly not! We couldn't think of giving up 'Pony', we couldn't get along without him." (CONT. # HAMMOND-DAVIS ANCESTORS WHO WERE MINISTERS OR CHURCH LEADERS IN HARRISON COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA

By E. Ethel (HAMMOND) NIELSEN

REV. JOHN GERRARD (1720-1787)

The Reverend was born about 1720 and died September 1787 in Berkeley County, Virginia. His son Justus (1774-1842) was married to Rachel CORELY the daughter of Rev. John CORBLY. Rev. GERRARD is an ancestor to the Davis line through the HARBERT family.

The town Gerrardstown was established as a town in 1787 by the Virginia House of Burgesses. The town was named for Rev. John GERRARD. He was the first pastor of Mill Creek Baptist Church which was organized by early settlers around 1743.

The December 2003 issue of Wonderful West Virginia magazine says that George Washington's diary of his survey trips for Lord Fairfax in 1753 and 1754, notes that after leaving Winchester, Va. he rode past a minister's creekside home and the First Baptist church west of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

This creekside two-story home was later purchased by Rev. John. The limestone dwelling had been built by John Hayes in 1742 and is still standing in Gerrardstown! Later, it was the home of the son Rev. David GERARD who had inherited a massive tract of land from his father John. Rev. John not only had purchased land, but also had an award of 478 acres from Lord Fairfax. Rev. David died in 1821.

Rev. John was appointed by the Philadelphia Association to the Mill Creek church in 1755 and served for 32 years until his death in 1787. Today, Gerrardstown is a part of the National Register of Historic Places. Many of Rev. John's children went on to Pennsylvania where they made history at Gerard's Fort.

JAMES SCARFF GRIFFIN (1799-1867)

The wife of James Scarff GRIFFIN was Martha HARBERT and their daughter Sarah Jane (1832-1893) married Christian Anderson DAVIS. James Scarff GRIFFIN (1799-1867) was a minister and the first moderator of Mt Pisgah Baptist Church in Gilmer County; he was elected Oct. 27, 1854. The minutes of the Virginia Baptist Association for 1850, on page 62, lists him with the ministers of the state of Virginia; his post office address was listed as Lumberport, Harrison Co. He is also listed with the ministers for the years 1851 also thru 1859.

In 1855 there is, in addition, a list of the churches by Associates giving the names of the pastors. Rev. Griffin is listed as pastor of Ten Mile Church in Harrison County but no address is given. This church was in the Broad Run Association. For some reason the Mt. Pisgah Association is not listed, although it had been organized the previous year. Page 20 of the Griffin history by Paul E. GRIFFIN, lists him as pastor of the Jones Run Church as well as the pastor of the Lebanon Church.

"A Griffin and Related Families History" by Paul E. GRIFFIN, 1987, pages 40-44, gives a history of the Jones' Run Baptist Church, Lumberport, W.Va., which was organized in 1831 as the Ten Mile Church. The name was changed to Jones' Run, December, 1855, with members coming out of the Simpson Creek, Coons Run and Hepzibah Churches. The descendants of John and James S. Griffin have contributed much to the progress of the Jones' Run Church. James Scarff GRIFFIN was baptized by Rev. John ALLEN at the July, 1831 meeting. At the meeting in January 1833, he was licensed by the church to exercise his gifts of singing, prayer and preaching in the bounds of the Association. On October 8th, 1836, he was ordained to the full work of the gospel ministry. He served as pastor from Sept. 21, 1850 until July 11, 1857.

REV. JOSEPH A. HAMMOND (1851-1911)

The Minutes of the West Virginia Conference of Methodist Episcopal Church (65th annual session) in 1911 lists a Memoriam for Rev. J.A.HAMMOND. Following are the highlights of their comments: He attended West Virginia College at Flemington, and Waynesburg College at Waynesburg, Pa. His five children are listed plus one called Edna Blanche that had died in 1898.

"He was converted Dec. 29, 1873 and was given license by his pastor, Rev. J. C. REXROAD, Feb. 25, 1877. In 1886 he was appointed to Pine Grove charge. His pastorates were: 1887, Bridgeport; 1888-89 West Milford; 1890-91, Smithton; 1892 West Union. In 1893 he was compelled to ask for a superannuated relation, due to failing health, which relation he held to the time of his death. He was a preacher of more than ordinary ability."

D.L. ASH, his longtime friend, gave the principal address in the church at Adamston, pastor C.E. HAMRICK, with interment in Greenlawn cemetery near his home. His death certificate says he died age 65 in Adamston, near Clarksburg, and the cause of death was Anemia.

Rev. Joseph HAMMOND (1851-1911) was the brother of David W. HAMMOND. D. W. Hammond was the first treasurer of the Wilsonburg Baptist Church that was organized May 29, 1887. Charter Members were Elizabeth E. MORRISON), Wilbur C. MORRISON, D. W. HAMMOND, E.C. SMALLWOOD, Agnes MORRISON, Flavious DRUMMOND, and Charles C. MORRISON.. W.C. MORRISON was the first Church Clerk. In 1888 a Sunday school was started and W.C. MORRISON was the first Superintendent.

The grandparents of Rev. Joseph were: Robert HAMMOND (abt 1798-abt 1830) and Nancy FITTRO (1802-1823). Their only child Joseph HAMMOND (1822-1904) married Susanna Ash in 1844.

JOHN WADE LOOFBOURROW (1746-1824)

John Wade served in Clarksburg as a Baptist Minister for several years. He married many couples. The following is taken from a history of Simpson Creek Baptist Church: At the January meeting in 1787 Rhoda Ward was tried for witchcraft. From a record of the minutes: "According to the appointment of the church we, John Wade LOOFBOURROW, William DAVIS and Thomas BARDLEY, a committee had made inquiry at the mouth of Sister Mary ANDERSON respecting the contradiction between Sister Stout and Sister Gwin DENHAM."

The following is taken from a newspaper article by Jack Sandy ANDERSON. "Several churches were organized in Clarksburg from the time of its settlement in the 18th century until the end of the Civil War in 1865....Hopewell Baptist Church organized in 1787 by a group of 13 persons who withdrew from the Simpson Creek Baptist Church...Among the ministers who preached in the church were James SUTTON, Joshua HICKMAN, John THOMAS, John Wade LOOFBOURROW and John DENHAM."

John Wade married Mary HOFF in 1767 and their daughter Sarah married John HARBERT in 1789. Their daughter Martha (1802-1889) married James Scarf GRIFFIN and their daughter Sarah Jane (1832-1893) married Christian Anderson DAVIS.

REV.JOHN CORBLY(1732-1803)

The following is taken from he monument (erected June 23, 1963 by Corbly descendants) in honor of Rev. John CORBLY & Family, Garards Cemetery, Greene County, Pa:

In MEMORY OF REV. JOHN CORBLY AND FAMILY Patriot, Soldier, Legislature, Draftsman, Minister, born Feb 23, 1733, nr London, England d June 9, 1803 Gerards Fort, Pa. Settled in Western Pa at Garards Fort. He established Goshen Baptist Church on this site and 30 other chuches in Va., Pa, and Ky. He married Abigail BULL 1734-1768 and they had children: Margaret, Rachel, Pricilla, and John. In 1773 he married Eliz. TYLER who died in 1782: their children were: Deliah, Elizabeth, Isiah, Mary Catherine, and Nancy. He married Mary Ann LYNN in 1784; their children were Mary, Andrew, Pleasant, Cassandra, Sarah, Amelia, Nancy, and William.

The Rev. CORBLY is a Davis ancestor through his daughter Rachel and the families of Rev. John GARRARD, and Samuel MORRIS whose daughter Rachel married John DYE.

The following photograph is the John CORBLY Memorial Church built in 1862. A Plaque set in a boulder reads: "Fort Garard built about 1774". The plaque was erected by D.A.R. in 1923. The Corbly massacre took place about 279 yards north on May 10, 1782.

SGT. WILLIAM DAVIS (abt 1746-abt 1800)

William DAVIS was not a minister but is included here because of his close relationship to the development of early churches in Monongalia County. Also, he voted in Clarksburg for our first President George WASHINGTON. He is the first known ancestor of the Davis genealogy. He was in Clarksburg before the arrival of several other William DAVIS' who were from New Jersey and settled in Salem.

William DAVIS attended the Redstone Church Annual Meeting at Great Bethel, Monongalia County, Va on Oct. 13, 1777 as the delegate of Simpson Creek Church which was received and enrolled into the Association of Redstone Hackers Creek Journal

Baptists. The first meeting had been in 1776. The next annual meeting where Wm Davis was a delegate was at Goshen Sept. 27, 1788. According to the minutes of the Redstone Church, William DAVIS and David EDWARDS were members from Simpson Creek.

The annual Association met at Goshen Sept. 27, 1788 and the messengers from Simpson Creek were: Isaac EDWARDS, Wm. DAVIS, and Joseph MILBOURN; Owen DAVIS from Mount Moriah; and John W. LOOFBOROUGH from Clarksburg. The Editor of the reproduction of these minutes said "these records prove that many of the first families in Western Penn, West Virginia and Ohio, were direct descendants of those Welshmen who procured 30,000 acres of land from Wm Penn and called them the Welsh Tract. Here, in 1703, they built a Baptist Church near Inn Hill. This was one of the five original churches that formed the Philadelphia Baptist Association, the oldest in America."

Interim Report on George COLLINS (b. 1760-65, d. 1840-50) Part Two

by John J. HOOD

It appears that George COLLINS may have been active in the settlement of the district in present-day Lewis County known as "Collins Settlement". In Haymond's History of Harrison County, he (HAYMOND) cites three deeds where John COLLINS Jr., Jacob COLLINS and a George COLLINS each receive 50 acres of land on both sides of the West Fork River for a penny in September of 1802. From Roy Bird COOK'S manuscript "A Sketch Book of Lewis County", he also names John Jr., Jacob and George as the settlers in Collins Settlement and dates the event as happening in September of 1802. Cook names George as a brother of John Jr., and his identification of John Jr. matches that of the John COLLINS who married Hannah COZAD. However, in examining other records, Bernie CLARK and I have deduced that this John Jr. is really John III (i.e., the son of John and Hannah). When John III's grandfather (the one we would call John I) died prior to 1795, his father now became the elder John COLLINS, so he now became the "Sr" and young John was promoted to "Jr". Who was this George COLLINS? Max COLLINS (2/17/1991) has said that George COLLINS (father of Hezekiah) settled at Collins Settlement in Lewis County, WV. Only more research can settle this issue.

The next time that we run into him (that is, when we are certain it is our George) is in 1809 when he marries Polly OWENS/COLLINS. This marriage may have been looked upon with disdain by many as he would have been 44 to 49 years old and she would have been 17 years old (and she may have even been a cousin)! It's not clear where he was living at this time. As stated earlier, Max COLLINS (2/17/1991) has said that George settled at Collins Settlement in Lewis County, WV, then later moved to Gilmer County, WV. It appears as though George was living in Gilmer County in 1817 when his son Hezekiah was born, and most likely was living there a tenant farmer.

In 1829, George COLLINS obtained his land grant for 100 acres of land on Elias' Run of Leading Creek in present-day in Calhoun County and made his home there. He would have been between 64 and 69 years old when he made this move.

In 1831, George COLLINS made his now-famous pension application and was later prosecuted for fraudulently obtaining the pension. William G. SINGLETON, the Special Pension Agent who challenged George COLLINS' pension claim, was a bumbler (see Appendix B). Singleton based his case entirely on George COLLINS' age, but there are other reasons to believe that George COLLINS had lied in order to get a pension. (Note that there is no reason to believe that there were two George COLLINS' living in the jurisdiction of Lewis County in 1831. There is only one George Collins in both the 1830 and 1840 censuses of Lewis County, so it would seem that he is the same one who filed for a pension for military service in the Revolutionary War.) George COLLINS' first problem was that he claimed to be older than what he really was. The George COLLINS that I have tracked through the census records reports a consistent birth date, being between 1760 and 1765 (it may have been his wife that honestly reported his age to the enumerator). The George COLLINS who applied for his pension appears claims have been born in 1755 or 1756.

Another problem was his statement that the only property of any value that he had was three cows. I have a hard time understanding how he could have made such a statement when it was public record that he was in possession of a 100-acre tract of land on Leading Creek.

There is yet another interesting statement that George COLLINS made that is puzzling. He claimed that his discharge certificate was consumed in a house fire around 1821 which destroyed everything of value that he owned. In the 1920's, the Clarksburg (WV) Exponent-Telegram (newspaper) sponsored a contest to see who owned the oldest Bible in the area. Oda Collins CORNELL of Clarksburg (a granddaughter of Hezekiah COLLINS) brought in a Bible to the newspaper office that they thought was a first edition of the King James Bible (1611). Cornell claimed that this Bible belonged to her great-great-grandfather Collins who brought it with him from the Old World when he settled in Virginia. This would mean that it belonged to John COLLINS Sr. (and presumably passed from John Sr. to George, George to Hezekiah, Hezekiah to his son Manley, then from Manley to his daughter, Oda). If the purported fire in 1821 took everything of value, then the Bible should have been destroyed as well. Again, it appears as though we have another fabrication from George COLLINS. [Note: The newspaper noted that no one had ever written anything in the Bible]

Lastly, the most convincing reason to believe that George COLLINS had fabricated his military service is that the officers that he named are not to be found in other sources. He claims to have served under a Colonel MORGAN or MORAN (no first name) and a Captain John LEWIS. I consulted William S. STRYKER'S "Official Register of the Officers and Men of New Jersey in the Revolutionary War" (Trenton, 1872) and found no man named Morgan or Moran serving as an officer in the New Jersey militia, and the only John Lewis in Stryker's book was a private in the New Jersey militia. The only George COLLINS listed in Stryker's book was a man in Monmouth County, and IF (and this is a big IF) George COLLINS really went to New Jersey, then I would have expected to see him in Somerset County (where his brother, John COLLINS, was a witness to the will of David SUTTON) or in Morris County where the Cozad family lived. Thus, it appears that George COLLINS did, indeed, try to fraudulently obtain a pension,

The loss of the pension payments in March of 1835 appears to have created a hardship for George COLLINS. He may have incurred large legal fees and court costs or may have had to reimburse the government. Whatever the case, on April 24, 1835, George and Manley COLLINS became indebted to Weeden HUFFMAN, and Thomas BLAND was made trustee of the land George COLLINS was living on (Leading Creek). Presumably, George obtained a loan and used his land as collateral. We may also infer that Manley was brought in on this arrangement since he may have been the eldest son of legal age (21 years old).

It appears to have been a struggle to satisfy the debt. George COLLINS (now between 73 to 78 years old) sold the 100-acre tract to Manley COLLINS on January 1, 1838, even though he still owed $67.00 on it, thus not having clear title to the land. Manley COLLINS then sold the tract to satisfy the debt on September 11, 1839.

As stated earlier, George COLLINS may have moved to Slab Creek in Ritchie County from Calhoun County in 1838, but that has yet to be proven. He does appear in the 1840 census, but it's unclear as to whether he is living in the Leading Creek area of Calhoun County or in the Slab Creek area of Ritchie County. The 1840 census is the last record regarding George Collins that I have found to date.

THE FAMILY OF GEORGE COLLINS AND MARY RICHARDS

NOTE: I have done little research into George COLLINS prior to the year 1809 and no research whatsoever on his family that he had by his first wife. I have focused more intensely on his family and activities from 1809 until his death. I have obtained the following information from Debbie MALEC'S web page (updated January 11, 2000) and include it simply to "round out" my picture of George Collins.

- 1.) WILLIAM: Born 1793 Clarksburg, WV. d. Feb 17 1875 Calhoun, WV. He married (1) Elizabeth ??? Linger in Harrison, WV. He married (2) Elizabeth * WIANT April 5, 1819 in Harrison, WV. He married (3) SARAH NORMAN January 01, 1863 in Gilmer, WV

A PROPOSED RECONSTRUCTION OF THE FAMILY OF GEORGE COLLINS AND MARY/POLLY COLLINS/OWENS

A note about sources for the information below: As mentioned earlier, I believed that Hezekiah COLLINS' father was George using a process of elimination with census records. In addition to that, Max Collins has stated (2/12/1991) that Hezekiah COLLINS' father was George COLLINS. In 1975, Max COLLINS' father (Charles Ross COLLINS) told him that Hezekiah's brothers were Limuel and Chaney COLLINS. M.K. LOWTHER'S book on Ritchie County states that Manley COLLINS' brothers and sisters were Chaney COLLINS of Smithville, Phebe SMITH (wife of Aaron SMITH) from Smith's Chapel, and John COLLINS of Wirt County and identified their mother as being Mary COLLINS (they didn't use the "Polly" nickname). Chainey, Eveline and Phebe are enumerated with their mother, Mary COLLINS, in the 1850 census of Ritchie County.

- 1.) DAUGHTER: b abt. 1810. One of three of this age in the 1820 census, then two matching entries in the 1830 census, and all three females (from 1820) are one by the 1840 census.
- 2.) LIMUEL(?): b. 1812? There is an entry for a male of this age in the 1820 census, but no corresponding entry in the 1830 census. In 1975, Charles Ross COLLINS (a grandson of Hezekiah COLLINS by his son, Lorenzo Dow COLLINS) informed his son Max COLLINS that Hezekiah COLLINS had two brothers of whom he was aware: a Limuel COLLINS (who is said to have drowned on Limuel's Run) and Chaney COLLINS. Since this is the only male for which I cannot account, I identify this one as Limuel, who more than likely died before 1835 (otherwise, his father would have had him co-sign his trust deed the way he did Manley in 1835).
- 3.) MANLEY: b. 1814. Married Mary ELLIOT February 29, 1835 (Lewis County marriage records). Raised his family on Slab Creek in Ritchie County, WV. He was a blacksmith who appears to have been held in esteem by those in his community.
- 4.) HEZEKIAH: born February 24, 1817, probably in Gilmer County. Married Roanna Jane MAZE about 1838 presumably in the Calhoun County area. He became involved in the Methodist Protestant church when a young man and remained active in it most of his life. He raised his family on Coal Fork Leading Creek in Calhoun County, WV. Died October 21, 1903 in Calhoun County, WV.
- 5.) EVALINE: born 1821-22. Married Hiram P. CAIN July 17, 1853 in Ritchie County. Said to have died at the home of her daughter in Parkersburg, WV.
- 6.) DAUGHTER: Born 1820-25. Alive in 1830 (judging from census) and gone by 1840.
- 7.) JOHN: Born about 1824. Married Eva -?--. Resided in Wirt County most of his adult life. No death record on file in Wirt County for John.

8.) SEDGWICK CHANEY: Born about 1825-26. Minnie Kendall LOWTHER identifies Chaney COLLINS of Smithville as a brother to Manley COLLINS of Slab Creek. Charles Ross COLLINS (1975) informed his son Max COLLINS that one of the brothers of Hezekiah was Chaney COLLINS. He was known as "Chany", "China" and "Chana" by his friends and neighbors. He married Ruhama ELLIOTT April 28, 1853 in Ritchie County. During the Civil War, he enlisted in Co. "C" of the 11th WV Infantry. He filed for a pension later claiming that he suffered dizziness and headaches as a result of being knocked unconscious by an exploding shell during the battle of Cloyd's Mountain on May 9, 1864. He stood between 5'6" and 5'8" tall, had brown hair, black eyes and dark complexion. In 1907, claims to have been born in 1821 in Harrison County, WV. He died April 3, 1908 at his home in Smithville. Granville TINGLER said of him: "...he is a man who is very truthful and his be relied on." Witnesses for his pension application testify as to him living with his wife and having a stable marriage (and not all veterans had such marriages).

9.) PHEBE: Born 1831-32. Married Aaron SMITH December 14, 1873 in Ritchie County, WV. Thus far, this is the only child of George and Mary's for which a marriage or death record has been found, and Phebe's marriage record states that her parents were George and Mary COLLINS. She resided at Smith's Chapel (according to Lowther).

10. and 11.?) TWO OTHER DAUGHTERS? The 1840 census makes it appear as though there may have been another daughter born 1830-35 and another one born 1835-40. However, the microfilm is difficult to read, and/or these may have been other children living with them. [When Phebe was born, the last child of which we are certain that George fathered, he was between 66 and 72 years old.]

[NOTE: It certainly appears as though George COLLINS had nine small children living at home in 1831 just as he claimed on his pension application.... which may have been the only truthful statement that he made.]

AND WHAT OF MARY/POLLY OWENS/COLLINS ?

Mary/Polly has been found in the 1850 and 1870 census records, but not the 1860 census. She stated that she was 57 in 1850 and 78 in 1870, which gives us a birth year of 1792. In the 1880 census, most of her children claim that they were born in Virginia and that their mother was born in Virginia. They must have meant the legal jurisdiction of Virginia since her son Sedgwick stated that he was born in West Virginia and that his mother was also born in West Virginia. Hence, we may reasonably state that Mary/Polly was born within the borders of present-day West Virginia in 1792.

What of her family? Was she from a family of OWENS or a family of COLLINS? Since the marriage bond was recorded in Harrison County, it would mean that she was residing in Harrison County at that time (regardless of where George COLLINS was living in 1809). We know that (unfortunately) she was unable to read and write.

We know that she was a young bride (17) marrying a man who was nearly 30 years her senior, had a family from a previous marriage and may even have been a cousin to her. The early records have her name as "Polly", but once she was widowed, she appears as "Mary". This may indicate that the nickname "Polly" was thrust on her and she disliked the name. Let there be no doubt that "Polly" and "Mary" are the same woman. Not only do all of the census records match (from 1810 to 1870), but M. K. LOWTHER stated in her book that Mary Collins was the mother of Manley COLLINS (b. 1814). [Note: Lowther never mentions the name of man who is the father of Manley and husband of Mary COLLINS]

The 1870 census is the last record found thus far for Mary/Polly Collins, and given her age in the 1870 census, we may be reasonably certain that she died between 1870 and 1880.

APPENDIX A: THE FAMILY OF ISAAC S. AND RACHEL (CUNNINGHAM) COLLINS

The only list of the children of Isaac and Rachel COLLINS that we genealogists have is the one provided in Minnie Kendall LOWTHER'S book. Although Lowther's book is notorious for its errors, the list that she provides us matches what we see in the early census records (given the known birth-years for the children of Isaac and Rachel). As evidence, I present:

1820 Virginia Census, Lewis County

Isaac S. Collins

- 1 male under age 10 (This, certainly, is Felix)
- 1 male at least 26, under 45 (Isaac S.)
- 3 females under age 10 (Phebe, Hannah & Nancy)
- 1 female at least 26, under 45 (Rachel)
- 1 engaged in agriculture (Isaac is a farmer!)

1830 Virginia Census, Lewis County

Isaac [S.] Collins

- 1 male under age 5 (Probably John, but can't tell)
- 2 males at least 5, under 10 (One is Felix, the other Thomas?)

1 male aged 30 to 40 (Isaac S.)
2 females under age 5 (Barbara, Leah? [age is odd])
1 female at least 5, under 10 (Nancy? Age seems odd)
1 female at least 10, under 15 (Hannah)
1 female at least 15, under 20 (Phebe)
1 female at least 40, under 50 (Rachel)

1840 Virginia Census, Lewis County

Isaac [S.] Collins

1 male under 5 (Who's this?)
1 male at least 5, under 10 (Isaac N.)
1 male at least 10, under 15 (John D. or Thomas)
1 male at least 15, under 20 (Thomas or John D.)
1 male at least 20, under 30 (Felix)
1 male at least 40, under 50 (Isaac S.)
1 female under 5 (Young Rachel? Age is a little off)
1 female at least 5, under 10 (Barbara)
1 female at least 10, under 15 (Leah? Age seems off a little)
1 female at least 20, under 30 (Nancy, age seems OK)
1 female at least 40, under 50 (Rachel)

Note: Phebe married in 1835 and Hannah in 1836, so they had left the house by 1840.

Although there is some difficulty with the ages of the children, the number of sons and daughters matches with the names in Lowther's book, and Lowther does not list a Hezekiah COLLINS. The census records show that there is no room for an "extra" son named James Hezekiah COLLINS (or simply, Hezekiah COLLINS, which I believe is his real name).

Rather than being the son of Isaac COLLINS, I strongly believe that Hezekiah COLLINS is the son of George COLLINS.

APPENDIX B: AN UNOFFICIAL INDICTMENT AGAINST WILLIAM G. SINGLETON

Excerpts from "The Border Settlers of Northwestern Virginia", by Lucullus Virgil MCWHORTER

The following are synopses of what McWhorter wrote regarding William G. SINGLETON, a Special Pension Agent, who attempted to remove many Revolutionary War pensioners from Lewis County, (West) Virginia from the pension rolls. Quotes from McWhorter appear in quotation marks, and my notes (i.e., Hood) appear in brackets.

pp. 151-152: John SCHOOLCRAFT obtains a pension after having P. MCCAN and James BROWN vouch for him (in regards to his military service and trustworthiness). In 1834, Singleton talks to Christopher NUTTER (age 74), John REGER (age 66), William POWERS (age 70), John NEELY and Nicholas CARPENTER, all of whom say that SCHOOLCRAFT was too young to have served in the Revolutionary War. [William POWERS and Nicholas CARPENTER also testified against George COLLINS]

pp. 277-279: Henry MCWHORTER is granted a pension, but upon re-examination by Singleton, his pension is reduced as Singleton does not count his time serving in the Indian wars as military service. [Singleton seems to have had no idea of how the British used the Indians as military allies, attacking white settlers west of the Alleghenies during the Revolutionary War]

p. 420: Lewis, Peter and Jacob BONNETT, and Adam FLESHER are initially granted pensions, but upon re-examination by Singleton, they are dropped from the pension rolls for being too young to have been able to serve in the Revolutionary War. Jesse CARPENTER and Thomas COTTRAL are dropped from the pension rolls for the same reason. "In many instances his [Singleton's] rulings appear very arbitrary and unjust."

p. 424: Thomas HUGHES is granted a pension, but upon re-examination by Singleton, is denied his pension. Singleton obtained testimony against Hughes from Christopher NUTTER and William POWERS. "In a few instances, his [Singleton's] charge of dishonesty is based upon the testimony of those whom he, in other cases, branded as frauds. He decried others, whose good character was vouched for by men of unquestionable integrity. This inconsistency is painfully manifest in more than one case."

p. 444: David W. SLEETH is denied his pension upon re-examination by Singleton. Singleton based his testimony on the discrepancies he found in Sleeth's testimony from his original pension application and Sleeth's testimony upon re-examination. Singleton also obtained supporting testimony from Christopher NUTTER and William POWERS. [Singleton seems to have overlooked the fact that these men who were applying for pensions were old men who were trying to recall events that occurred 50 to 60 years earlier. Discrepancies in what one can remember should not be surprising].

p. 486: Singleton re-examines Joseph KESTER and OK's his pension.

p. 504: Hezekiah HESS obtains a pension. Singleton re-examines his claim. Hess is then denied his pension as Singleton is told by Benjamin COPELAN (age 84) Christopher NUTTER (age 74) that Hess is a liar. [Benjamin COPELAN also testified against George COLLINS]

It wasn't long until he was sent on from Marietta to Weston, WV with a guard detachment; his chief detail there to stand watch at the Stonecoal Covered Bridge (still standing until replaced last year with a new concrete bridge<sup>1</sup>), one half mile East of Weston on the Buckhannon Pike. A band of "Bushwhackers" from Richmond (free-lance rebels in the war more for booty) came galloping through one day and Ed found himself their prisoner. But being young and of not much avail to the marauders he was turned loose after having been stripped of his armament, uniform and belongings.

In the plunder was a small leather flap-bound Bible which was treasured by him as it had been the last thing Mollie, his favorite sister, had given him and had asked that he take good care of it for her sake. The Bible had been awarded her back home in Lowell by the Preacher for reciting more verses than any one else in Sunday School the year before when she was 13.

The war was fought and won, and the family was fortunate in seeing all the sons return home alive. Over a decade of years had passed when one day while Mollie was visiting the family of James BERRY, at Berry's Landing, up the River, she was looking among the books on the shelf of the small home library and came across a worn leather bound book that looked vaguely familiar; and sure enough -- on looking inside the cover she found that it was Ed's Bible the same one that she had given him many years back. Excited, she asked of Mrs. BERRY "Where did brother Ed's Bible come from?" To which was the reply, "Our son, Clark, a Union Soldier took that off a dead rebel's body on the field just after a battle." Mrs. BERRY offered the return of the Bible to her then, but it was left on the shelf to bear solitary witness of life and death back and forth across the lines during the war.

And now, today, Mollie Steinbeck , 90 years old, gray haired and retiring, relates the interesting story and wishes she had accepted the offer of the return of the Bible that she might have it to mark the incident.

Submitted by Shirley TOOHEY: "My G grandmother Mollie was born in Ritchie Co, WV, daughter of William Henry BALLENTINE b 1815 in Indiana Co, PA married Elizabeth Mary KIMBERLY1 Nov 1838 in Washington Co, OH. William Henry died 1888."

Special thanks go to member Bud HEFLIN for leading us in the right direction on this picture. He knew these folks worked for the US Department of Agriculture and that their office was in Weston upstairs over the Western Auto Store on Main Avenue. He was able to identify Delmas KELLY, L. Main BOND and the lone lady in the picture, Mary Katherine HORNER HALL. BOND and HALL were from Roanoke and KELLY from Canoe Run. Armed with this information, I visited the Lewis County Extension Office at the courthouse looking for some answers. Helen MCCLAIN, office manager, said that Mary K. HALL lived just up the block from the extension office. She called Mrs. Hall arranged for me to visit her. What a gracious lady she was! I spent a delightful hour with her. Moreover, she had a framed copy of the picture. The photo was taken on the front steps of the courthouse in 1943 or 44.

Mrs. Hall is the only one in the photo still living. She started working for USDA in 1939 right out of Clarksburg Business College filling in for a 2 week busy time. She was there for 37 1/2 years. All identities are left to right. Row 1: Wayne BAILEY, Raymond ARNOLD, Wayne FRAZIER. Row 2: Delmas KELLY, George Schieffer, Kenneth HALL (Mary K's husband), John KOLB. Row 3: Bernard KRAUS, Jackson ARNOLD, Levi JEWELL, ____ SMITH (from Kincheloe area), C.E. CHRISLIP. Row 4: C. E. STOCKDALE (executive director from state office in Morgantown), L. Main BOND, Mary K. HORNER HALL, William LOWTHER, T. P. SLEETH.

QUERIES

1. I am seeking information on the death date and burial place of Mary J. BENNETT, birth estimated from 1852-1855. She was married to Vincent B. MARSH. She was likely buried in the Weston area, in Pendleton or Lewis County. Please send findings to e-mail: little_gale@yahoo.com, or write to Dolly GRINALDI, 1003 Hazel Avenue, Ambridge, PA 15003.
2. I enjoyed the stories about the Pleasant Hill Church. I decided to make a note in my WVA atlas for a future visit. The story locates the church in Doddridge county, Hunter's Fork. To my surprise, my atlas has no mention of either. Where is the church located? Thanks, Bob CROWELL
3. Looking into the family of Isaiah GARNER of Doddridge/Tyler County West VA was born 02 Nov 1832, and died 10 Dec 1901. . Rebecca was Isaiah's first wife. Who was she and where is she buried? Anyone have any information on Rebecca?

Some of this family is buried in Oak Grove Cemetery in Tyler County (I think it is Tyler, the county lines are so close to each other here that I am not sure which county it is but it is either Tyler, Doddridge or Ritchie) Any one have the GPS location on this?
